Dear W. Lloyd Garrison

Will you kindly do me the favour of accepting two or three photographs as a small remembrance of your very welcome visit yesterday to the home of your dear old friend Harriet Martineau? The small one is of an inscription carved by Wordsworth's own hand on a rock in his garden.

I should also like to send a copy of the new English edition of Whittier's poems to one of your grandchildren.

I am, with an intense feeling of gratitude for the great & noble work you have done in your time, & which happily

you have lived to see
bear glorious result,
I am

Yours very truly
Wm. W. Hills
